4 Article 4: Synodical Affiliation

5 This Congregation may affiliate herself with the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, or any other

7 confessions, constitution, doctrinal statements, and resolutions of such a group remain true to 8 the Word of God and the Lutheran Confessions (Article 3.)

9 Article 5: Office of the Pastor

10 The Office of the Pastor is a divine institution. God, working through congregations, calls
11 Pastors to serve in that office locally. Pastors are accountable to God for their use of the Power 12 of the Keys (Hebrews 13:17; I Corinthians 4:1-4.) Only men shall serve as Pastor who are 13 properly qualified (I Timothy 3:1-7, Titus 1:5-9), are ordained, are unequivocally pledged to our 14 Confessional Standard (Article 3), have graduated from an Evangelical Lutheran seminary have 15 been endorsed by the synod, diocese, or other collection of evangelical Lutheran congregations
16 Trinity may be a member of, and are rightly called (Augsburg Confession XIV) by the 17 Congregation as set forth in the Bylaws. The duties of the Pastor of this Congregation are set 18 forth in the Bylaws, as are the criterion and procedure for removing the Pastor from office.

19 Article 6: Membership

29 of God or the Confessional Standard of this Congregation, and willingly accept brotherly 30 admonition when having erred or offended;
- 31 - Are not a member of any secret or other organization which conflict with the Word of God
32 or the Confessional Standard of this Congregation;
- 33 - Support to the extent of their physical and financial ability the preaching of the Gospel
34 and the administering of the Sacraments carried out by this Congregation.

35 C. The rights and privileges of membership in Trinity Lutheran Church shall continue until such 36 time as the member:

- 37 - Is transferred to the Church Triumphant;
- 38 - Is transferred or released to another Congregation;
- 39 - Excludes himself from fellowship by long-term absence from Divine Service, or by 40 resignation;
- 41 - Is excommunicated for manifest, impenitent sin;

- 1 - Joins a secret society or religious organization which conflicts with the Word of God or 2 the Confessional Standard of the Congregation.
3

4 Article 7: Organization

5 The Word of God as expounded in the Lutheran Confessions is the ultimate authority for the 6 conducting of the affairs of this Congregation. The spiritual affairs of the Congregation are 7 carried out under the supervision and authority of the Pastor, who shall appoint a Board of 8 Elders, as provided in the Bylaws, to assist him with his duties. In addition, the Organist, Choir
9 Director, and any similar office directly involved with worship or the Office of the Pastor shall 10 operate under the authority of the Pastor. The Pastor, at his discretion, may be a voting member 11 of all boards and committees of this Congregation.
12

13 The Congregation administers her secular affairs through a Voters Assembly. The Voters 14 Assembly is a human institution. Membership and officers of the Voters Assembly is set forth in 15 the Bylaws.
16

17 Article 8: Congregational Societies or Groups

18 Societies or groups may be organized within the Congregation only with the express approval of 19 the Voters Assembly, and all such societies or groups shall be under the supervision of the 20 Pastor and the Board of Elders. Only communicant members of this Congregation shall be 21 officers of such societies or groups. Any decisions, programs, or events of or by societies or 24 groups within the Congregation.

25

26 Article 9: Powers Vested in the Congregation

27 The Congregation shall ever retain the right and duty to call Pastors. The Congregation shall 28 ever retain the right and duty to judge the doctrine and life of her Pastor through the Board of 29 Elders and the Voters Assembly.
30

31 Article 10: Property Rights

32 If a division should take place over the theology or practice of Article 3, the property of the 33 Congregation and all benefits connected therewith shall remain with those communicant
34 members who continue to adhere in confession and practice to Article 3 of this Constitution. If 35 division takes place for any other reason, the property shall remain with the simple majority of 36 the communicant members relative to the issue.
37

38 Article 11: Dissolution of the Congregation

39 In the event the Congregation should dissolve, all assets of the Congregation shall, after the 40 liabilities and obligations have been paid, satisfied and discharged, be distributed in accordance

1 with a plan of distribution duly adopted by the Voters Assembly as provided by the Texas Non-
2 Profit Corporation Act. The property and all rights connected therewith may be transferred by 3 the Voters Assembly to an entity with whom this Congregation is in fellowship.
4

5 Article 12: Validity of Resolutions

6 All secular/temporal matters shall be decided by a simple majority vote of the qualified voting
7 members present at a properly convened meeting of the Voters Assembly. While 8 doctrinal/spiritual matters may come before the Voters Assembly, doctrinal/spiritual truth is not 9 established by men voting. Instead, men recognize the truth as revealed in God's Word.
10

11 Article 13: Bylaws

12 This Congregation, through the Voters Assembly, may adopt such bylaws by a simple majority 13 vote to accomplish the purpose of its organization.
14

15 Article 14: Amendments

16 A. This Constitution may be amended, with the exception of the Articles listed in section B, by a
17 three-fourths majority of the votes cast in a regular meeting of the Voters Assembly, provided
18 that the intention to amend the Constitution and the wording of the amendments proposed 19 shall be distributed to the Congregation assembled for worship on two different Sundays
20 prior to the date which the amendment is presented for action.
21

22 B. Articles 2, 3, 5, 6, 9, 10, and 13 are hereby made irrevocable and shall not be amended in 23 such a way to alter their essential meaning.

24 C. Upon ratification, all amendments to this Constitution will be submitted to the synod, diocese, 25 or other collection of evangelical Lutheran congregations Trinity may be a member of for 26 approval as may be required or advised by such organization's rules or practices.

The Bylaws of the Constitution

Bylaw 1: The Office of the Pastor

Section 1. The Pastoral Office

“So that we may obtain this [Christian] faith, the ministry of teaching the Gospel and administering the Sacraments was instituted” (AC, V, 1). The “ministry is the highest office in the Congregation.” (AP, XV, 42, Triglotta). “[T]he authority of the ministry depends upon God’s Word” (TR, 10), not upon any human agreement or arrangement. According to 1 Corinthians 4:1, pastors are to be regarded “as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.” Article XII, 80 of the Apology of the Augsburg Confession identifies “the mysteries of God” mentioned in I Corinthians 4:1 specifically as Word and Sacrament.

The Pastoral Office is not a human but a divine institution. The Congregation is free to add and subtract auxiliary offices such as President, elders, day school teachers, etc. because these offices are of human origin. The Congregation cannot decide not to have a Pastoral Office. This Office is a gift from her Lord. While the Congregation calls individual Pastors to minister to them, it is the Holy Spirit who makes him an overseer to care for the Church of God (Acts 20:28).

The Congregation using her official Constitution and Bylaws under the supervision and direction of the called Pastor determines what specific duties are to be assigned to such offices as they establish. The duties of the Pastoral Office, however, are outlined in Scripture. They are as follows:

- To feed the sheep (John 21:15) especially when they are sick, dying, or unable to attend Divine Services;
- To preach and teach the whole counsel of God (Acts 20:27; Matthew 28:20), in season and out reproving, rebuking and exhorting (2 Timothy 4:2) in sermons, catechetical instruction for children and adults, and Bible class(es);
- To bind and loose sin (John 20:23) including to excommunicate the impenitent. “Certainly, the common jurisdiction of excommunicating those guilty of clear crimes belongs to all pastors (I Corinthians 5)” (TR, 74);
- To administer the Sacraments as a steward of Christ; i.e. in accordance with His divine institution (Matthew 28:19; I Corinthians 4:1). This includes in particular, in conjunction with the Board of Elders, the oversight of Divine Services;
- To do the work of an evangelist (2 Timothy 4:5), to refute those who oppose pure teaching (1 Timothy 5:20; Titus 1:9), and to guard the Faith that has been passed down to them (I Timothy 6:20; 2 Timothy 1:13);
- To rule by means of the Word of God as one who must give an account before the Lord Jesus Christ of the souls entrusted to him (Hebrews 13:17).

In all of a Pastor’s preaching, teaching, and decisions, he remains accountable to the Congregation according to the doctrines of the Word of God as expounded in the Book of Concord of 1580. Members have the duty and right to judge the Pastor according to this standard (Acts 17:11; I John 4:1). Members of the Congregation are obligated by the Word of God to hear, honor, love, obey, help and support the Pastor in his ministry of God’s Word in such a way that he can give an account of their souls with joy not with groaning (Hebrews 13:17);

1 Luke 10:16; I Timothy 5:18). Pastors “who rule well” are to “be considered worthy of double
2 honor especially those who labor in preaching and teaching” (I Timothy 5:17).
3

4 Section 2. Procedure for Calling a Pastor

5
6 In a vacancy, the Board of Elders shall serve as the Call Committee. The Voters may also elect
7 a member of the Voters Assembly who is not an elder to serve as a non-voting member of the 8 Call Committee. The Call Committee shall submit names of orthodox, confessional Lutheran
9 Pastors to the Voters Assembly from which the assembly shall elect one to be their interim
10 Pastor to oversee the Divine Services, Christian education, and the call process. Should Trinity
11 be affiliated with a larger Lutheran organization, the Call Committee may consult with its leaders 12 during the calling process.
13

14 Candidates for the office of Pastor shall be orthodox, confessional Lutheran men who have 15 completed a seminary education and are certified by three other Pastors the Board of Elders
16 knows to be orthodox, confessional Lutherans.
17

18 Any member of the Congregation may submit a name for nomination, but the Board of Elders in 19 consultation with the interim Pastor shall decide using the criteria above which names are to be 20 submitted to the Voters Assembly for consideration for the office of Pastor. The Board of Elders 21 shall give the reason for any name being removed from the list.
22

23 At a regular or special meeting of the Voters Assembly at which the interim Pastor is in 24 attendance, the voters shall elect one of the proposed candidates by written ballot. The voting 25 shall continue until a unanimous agreement is reached. The President shall be responsible for 26 seeing that the candidate is notified promptly of his election and that all Call documents are 27 delivered to him as quickly as possible.
28

29 Bylaw 2: Communicant Membership

30 Section 1. Application for Membership — Procedure

31
32 Applicants for communicant membership in this Congregation shall consult the Pastor, who shall 33 determine whether such applicants are eligible for membership in accordance with Article 6 of 34 the Constitution. Applicants not familiar with the doctrines and confessions of the Lutheran
35 Congregation shall be required to attend a course of instruction in Luther’s Small Catechism, 36 and to make profession of their faith.
37

38 Applicants from Evangelical Lutheran Congregations in fellowship with Trinity shall submit a 39 letter of transfer from their former congregation to establish their eligibility for membership. In 40 the case of applicants whose previous membership in a Lutheran congregation has lapsed, the 41 Pastor may, with the consent of the Board Elders, arrange for a period of re-instruction prior to 42 the applicant reaffirming his or her faith.
43

44 After applicants have given satisfactory evidence of their eligibility in accordance with the two 45 preceding paragraphs, their admission as communicant members shall be reported to the

1 Voters Assembly. Once the Voters Assembly has accepted the applicant he shall be added to 2 the active membership roll.
3

4 Section 2. Privileges and Duties of Communicant Members

5
6 It shall be the privilege and duty of members of this Congregation to:
7

- 8 - Grow in the Christian faith and life through faithful use of the means of grace, searching 9 the Scriptures at home and in fellowship with other members of the Congregation, and 10 partaking of the Lord's Supper frequently.
- 11 - Live a morally decent life before God and men, abstaining from open works of the flesh
12 (Gal. 5:18-21), and so conducting themselves at all times as to bring credit rather than 13 blame upon the Church of Jesus Christ.
- 14 - Provide for the proper Christian training of their children by instruction at home and 15 through the agencies of the Congregation.
- 16 - Contribute toward the maintenance of the Pastor and Congregation to the limit of their 17 financial ability.
- 18 - Place their God-given talents and abilities at the disposal of the Pastor, the officers, and 19 the Voters Assembly.
20

22 Bylaw 3: Voting Membership

23 Section 1. Eligibility

24
25 A communicant member who is male, at least 18 years of age and is on the roster of active 26 members shall be eligible to apply for voting membership. The roster is maintained by the 27 Pastor in consultation with the Board of Elders. Application for membership shall be made at a 28 regular voters meeting of the Congregation, at which time he shall be given an official copy of 29 the Constitution and Bylaws of the Congregation. He will then be eligible to vote at the next 30 regular voters meeting after signing the Constitution and Bylaws. To maintain his eligibility, he 31 must remain on the roster of active members and have attended the previous regular meeting,
32 or have been excused by the President or vice President chairing the meeting.
33

34 Section 2. Privileges and Duties of Voting Members

35
36 It shall be the privilege and duty of a voting member of this Congregation to:
37

- 38 - Conscientiously and prayerfully exercise his responsibility for the spiritual and material 39 welfare of the Congregation by exercising his right of suffrage.
- 40 - Willingly serve in any office or capacity for which his talents and abilities equip him.
- 41 - Faithfully attend Voters Assembly meetings.
- 42 - Assist with wholehearted diligence in administering the affairs of the Congregation.
- 43 - Encourage, by personal example, friendly interest, and judicious counsel, such eligible 44 communicant members who are not yet voting members to consider seriously accepting 45 the responsibilities and privileges of voting membership.

Bylaw 4: Discipline in the Congregation

All discipline in this Congregation shall be administered in accordance with the Confessional Standard as outlined in Article 3 of the Constitution. The following procedure shall be followed under the direction of the Pastor assisted as needed by the Board of Elders.

Section 1. Provisions Pertaining to Pastors

Sufficient grounds for deposing a duly called Pastor shall be persistent adherence to false doctrine, scandalous life, or a protracted inability to perform the duties of the sacred office. Charges on any of these counts shall be carefully investigated by the Board of Elders. Should such charges be substantiated by clear evidence, the Pastor may first be given an opportunity to resign his office in the Congregation. Such opportunity having been given and declined, the above-mentioned Board shall, after consultation with at least three Pastors with whom Trinity is in fellowship (two picked by the Board of Elders and one picked by the Pastor being charged), notify the Congregation of the situation, and shall submit the matter for action at a special meeting of the Voters Assembly. A three-fourths majority vote of the Voters Assembly shall be required to depose a Pastor. Should Trinity be affiliated with a larger Lutheran organization, the Board of Elders may consult with its leaders and shall notify them in the event a pastor is deposed.

Should the occasion to depose a Pastor ever arise, the intended deposition shall be announced by the Chairman of the Board of Elders at regular Divine Service on the two Sundays preceding a special meeting of the Voters Assembly called for that purpose.

Section 2. Communicant Membership - Termination

- A. Transfers. A member desiring transfer to a Lutheran congregation in fellowship with Trinity shall apply to the Pastor. Upon approval by the Pastor in conjunction with the Board of Elders, a letter of transfer shall be issued by the Pastor. The Pastor shall report all transfers to the Voters Assembly at the next regular meeting of that body.
- B. Joining Other Congregations. In cases where communicant members in good standing of this Congregation have joined a non-Lutheran congregation, they shall be deemed to have terminated their membership in this Congregation, forfeiting all rights and privileges of such membership. Their name(s) shall be removed from the rolls of the Congregation and be reported to the Voters Assembly as having been peacefully released.
- C. Whereabouts Unknown. It is the duty of all communicant members to keep the church office informed as to their whereabouts. The names of members whose whereabouts are unknown as established by their mail returning with no forwarding address for a period of three months shall be removed from the membership rolls. Such membership termination shall be reported to the next regular meeting of the Voters Assembly as "whereabouts unknown."
- D. Self-Exclusion. When a member of this Congregation has not attended a Divine Service without acceptable excuse such as military service, illness, or temporary relocation for one year, the member's name shall be removed from the Congregation's rolls with prior approval by the Voters Assembly, and shall be regarded as having excluded himself from this

1 Congregation. Such self-exclusion releases the individual from all responsibilities to this
2 Congregation, but it also excludes the member from the privileges of Congregation
3 membership, such as a wedding or funeral at Trinity, Holy Communion, transfer to a sister
4 congregation, and of any claim against the properties of this Congregation. Such a person,
5 however, will always be welcomed to attend Divine Services.

6 E. Excommunication is to be applied to any member who conducts himself in an unchristian 7 manner; i.e., to one who openly adheres to false doctrine, gives evidence of an immoral and 8 offensive life, or willfully despises the preaching of the Gospel and the Lord's Supper. The 9 Pastor in conjunction with the Board of Elders shall be responsible for administering 10 Christian discipline in accordance with Matthew 18, on behalf of the Congregation. In the 11 event of persistent impenitence, the Pastor's act of excommunication shall be recognized by 12 unanimous vote of the Voters Assembly. In the event a unanimous vote cannot be reached, 13 either those voting against the excommunication will have to be excommunicated or the 14 excommunication withdrawn. The Pastor, as a matter of pastoral care, may prohibit a 15 member from receiving communion for a time. Such a person may appeal his decision to the 16 Board of Elders, and failing that, to the Voters Assembly.

17 Persons who have been removed from membership for whatever reason shall be restored
18 with all rights and privileges when they repent and ask forgiveness through the Pastor. Both 19 acts of discipline and restoration shall be made known to all communicant members by 20 whatever method the Pastor in conjunction with the Board of Elders deem most suitable.

21 Section 3. Provisions Pertaining to Congregational Officers and Chairmen

22
23 Any Officer of the Congregation or Chairman of a Board who willfully neglects the duties of his 24 office may be deposed by a two-thirds majority vote of the voting members present in a regular 25 meeting of the Voters Assembly. The Pastor through the Board of Elders or the Board of Elders 26 itself shall initiate such action. Matthew 18 shall be followed under such circumstances. When 27 an office or chair is made vacant by deposition, resignation, death, or excommunication of the 28 incumbent, a successor to such office or chair shall be nominated by the Pastor and President 29 and elected by the voting membership at the next meeting.
30

31 Bylaw 5: Meetings of the Congregation

32 Section 1. Regular Meetings

33
34 Regular meetings of the Voters Assembly shall be held five (5) times during each calendar year
35 in the months of: January, March, June, September, and November. Dates and times of all
36 Voters Assembly shall be set by the President in conjunction with the Pastor. The November
37 meeting of the Voters Assembly shall include the consideration and acceptance of the budget
38 for the following year.
39

40 All communicant members on the roster of active members of the Congregation may attend the 41 meetings of the Voters Assembly and may participate in discussion of any item of business
42 before the voting membership. Although Scripture does place the responsibility and authority for 43 leadership on the men of the Congregation, Scripture also shows that women can indeed speak 44 the Word of the Lord. Furthermore, Scripture shows that men were chastised by the Lord when 45 they didn't listen to women when they spoke His Word (Gen. 21:12; Mark 16:14).

1
2 Every meeting of the Voters Assembly shall be announced at the Divine Service on the Sunday
3 preceding the date of the meeting.

4 Section 2. Special Meetings

5
6 Special meetings of the Voters Assembly may be called by the Pastor, Board of Elders, Board of 7 Trustees, or Board of Social Activities, or at the request of 10 members of the Congregation.
8 Notice of the date and time of such a meeting and of the nature of the business to be transacted
9 shall be given at the Sunday Divine Service immediately preceding the date of the meeting. The 10 agenda of the special meeting shall be limited to the previously announced business.

11 Section 3. Order of Business at Regular Meetings

12
13 Regular meetings of the Voting Membership shall proceed as follows:

- 14 1. Prayer by the Pastor
- 15 2. Roll Call of Voting Members
- 16 3. Reception of New Voting Members
- 17 4. Minutes of Previous Meeting(s), including Special Meetings
- 18 5. Unfinished Business
- 19 6. Pastor's Report
- 20 7. Treasurer's Report
- 21 8. Elders' Report
- 22 9. Trustees' Report
- 23 10. Social Activities' Report
- 24 11. Special Committees' Reports
- 25 12. New Business
- 26 13. Adjournment
- 27 14. Closing Prayer by the Pastor

28
29
30 The President may, with the consent of the Voters Assembly, vary the above order in the 31 interest of efficiency.

32 Section 4. Restrictions Pertaining to Voters Assembly Meetings

33
34 Attending voting members of a properly called Voters Assembly shall constitute a quorum.

35
36 The Pastor may vote when he chooses. The President may vote in the event of a tie. There 37 shall be no voting by proxy.
38

1 In general, for purposes of order, Robert's Rules of Order shall be followed but Christian charity
2 shall prevail.
3

9 The administrative (secular or temporal) affairs of the Congregation shall be conducted through 10 the Voters Assembly. Whereas God has established the headship of the man in creation (Gen.

12 roster of active members who are male and eighteen years of age or older who have willingly
13 committed themselves before the Lord and their peers to be responsible for the administrative 14 affairs of the Congregation. The officers of the Voters Assembly shall be elected from the voting
15 membership of the Voters Assembly in accordance with the Bylaws.
16

22 to administer bank accounts, and to obtain legal information necessary to make wise decisions.
23

24 C. Administrative Boards

25

26 There shall be three administrative Boards: the Board of Elders, the Board of Trustees, and the
